

PATRICK and JENNIFER

(AND BAILEY!)

Hello!

To an amazing woman,

We are so excited you are considering us to be the adoptive parents of your baby. We know this must be the most difficult decision you have ever been faced with, and we cannot imagine what you must be feeling. We are so impressed with your courage and strength. Making an adoption plan for your baby is the most selfless act you can ever do, and it is an amazing testament for the type of wonderful woman you must be and the love you must have for your unborn child.

OUR Love STORY

We are Patrick and Jennifer, and we are best friends and soulmates. We have been happily married for seven years. We met over thirteen years ago in Michigan, connected over our love of football, food and family and the rest is history. We have an amazing support system, loving families and we have each other. Our marriage is built on mutual love, respect, and trust.

We were married in Birmingham, Alabama on a beautiful spring day April 23, 2016. We were so blessed to have our family and friends travel from all of the country to attend this special day. Our wedding was full of food, good music, dancing and fun. It was a great way to start our marriage.

All of me loves
all of you

WHAT PATRICK LOVES MOST

Jen is simply amazing. She loves family, enjoying concerts, exploring the world through food, being great in her profession and ensuring that our child has every advantage that we can provide. She makes our home warm, welcoming and often festive. The passion that she has for us allows her to create the time and energy to volunteer with the PTA, spend time with her friends and ensure we have regular family fun days. I love all the love that she has to give and the care she puts into ensuring that we are all taken care of. She is the best and she is so excited to grow our family.

WHAT JENNIFER LOVES MOST

Patrick is the most loving and caring man I've ever met. He's always willing to lend a helping hand and is the best dad in the world to Bailey. While he's truly passionate about his career in supply chain, Patrick's number one priority is his family.

GOOD TIMES

Our family loves to travel. We've visited Disney World, nature resorts, the Georgia Aquarium and Galveston. If school and work are closed we are always trying to explore a new city.

Everyday Happiness

We love doing fun things around town like going to plays, seeing movies and visiting local museums.

We love to read in our family. We've been reading to Bailey every night since she was one week old. The local library is one of our favorite places to visit.

HOME sweet HOME

Our family lives in a four-bedroom four-bathroom home in a gated community. We also have a dedicated playroom on the first floor. It's a perfect space for pretend play, arts and crafts and games.

Our neighborhood has a community pool, playground and walking paths.

HOLIDAYS, TRADITIONS, & FUN

We love a holiday! It can be Christmas, Birthdays or Fall Football. It doesn't take much for us to get festive.

SUNDAY FUNDAY

We love Sunday dinner. It can be just the three of us, a nice brunch or a family affair.

OUR FAMILIES

FAMILY IS VERY IMPORTANT TO BOTH OF US, AND WE TRY TO SEE THEM SEVERAL TIMES A YEAR.

Jennifer loves to spend time with her parents at their home in Alabama. Our family spends every Thanksgiving there and it's one of our special traditions. She has one younger brother Jason who also lives in Alabama.

Patrick is an only child and his parents live in St. Louis. He also has aunts and cousins in the local area that visit on a regular basis.

WHY WE HOPE TO ADOPT

We both love children and wanted to build our family for many years. We were blessed to have our daughter Bailey in 2017 and wanted to grow our family. We know there is more room in our hearts for another child and we are excited for the day we can grow our family through adoption. We cannot wait to welcome another child into our family.

OUR PROMISE TO YOU

We promise to always love and honor your baby and always show unconditional love. We will give your child a loving home that teaches them to be kind, to cherish family and to have the confidence to achieve their dreams. We will set an example of a happily married couple who are kind, supportive, and loving and respectful of each other.

THANK YOU FOR GIVING THE GIFT OF LIFE AND CONSIDERING US TO BECOME THE ADOPTIVE PARENTS OF YOUR BABY.

We feel very grateful to have the opportunity to share in this experience with you. Should we be blessed enough to be chosen by you, we assure you that your child will never want for anything and will always know their special adoption story and the unconditional love you have for them.

With grateful hearts,

Jennifer, Patrick, & Bailey

We are so excited to meet the newest member of our family!
